DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 12, 16, 32 and 36-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Conner et al. (USPN 7113231).

Regarding claims 1, 12, 16, 32, 36-37, Conner et al. (USPN 7113231) teaches a dot sequential color display system as shown in Fig. 1 including a projection lens assembly 26 projecting the overlapping images of color component sub-pixels or dots onto a display screen 28 that is viewed by one or more observers. As shown in Fig. 1, Cornett also teaches the use of pixelated electronic display (e.g., a liquid crystal display) (20). Conner teaches as shown in Fig. 5 a display device 58 illustrating that at each of times t, pixel columns x and x+3 receive blue color component information, pixel columns x+1 and x+4 of display device 58 receive green color component information, and pixel columns x+2 and x+5 of display device 58 receive red color component information (col. 7, lines 26-34).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 2-6, 27 and 31 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
4. Claims 7-11, 13-15, 17-26, 28-30, 33-35 and 38-54 are allowed.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The following arts are cited for further reference
